

HOCHSCHULE
FÜR MUSIK
HANNS EISLER
BERLIN

DAAD-Preis 2023

The DAAD prize is awarded to an international student at Hanns Eisler School of Music Berlin for special academic achievements and remarkable social and/or intercultural commitment.

Requirements:

- students who obtained higher education entrance qualification abroad, exchange students cannot apply
- special artistic achievements
- social and/or intercultural commitment
- Bachelor students in at least their second year and Master students in at least their second semester

Scholarship amount: 1000,- Euro

Selection process

1. Round
Application deadline 18.6.2023 Send your application to: international@adm.hfm-berlin.de The three best candidates will be invited to the second round.
2. Round
Audition 26.6.2023, 9 to 10 am Please prepare three pieces of various styles and be prepared to answer questions regarding your social or intercultural commitment. A multidisciplinary committee will select the winner who will be informed within the week after the audition. For the audition you are asked to organize a répétiteur yourself.
Award ceremony
October/November 2023 The award winner introduces herself*himself to the public in the framework of an (Excellence) concert.

Application documents:

- application form
- description of social and/or intercultural commitment
- CV
- recommendation from the main subject instructor

Audition programme: three works of various styles

Contact:

Katja Ehrentreich | International Office | Ch 635
international@adm.hfm-berlin.de